

BYU Conferences and Workshops ACT AND COLLEGE PREP CAMP PRE-ARRIVAL INFORMATION COMMUTER INFORMATION

As a commuting participant of ACT, you are expected to attend all daytime classes and evening activities with the exception of counselor time each evening. You will have a full agenda in your packet when you check in. Once you arrive to campus, you must remain on campus until you check out with your counselor.

Note: Check-out times each evening will fluctuate. If someone is picking you up, it is your responsibility to keep them updated on the time to pick you up. This information will be in the agenda you receive when you check in.

You will be assigned to a counselor and you will be part of his/her group for the week. Your counselor is responsible for your whereabouts during the evening activity. Please help them with their responsibilities and do not just “disappear” when the activity has ended. You will cause unnecessary stress for everyone. Failure to follow these procedures will result in dismissal from the program.

After classes have ended, please check out with your counselor or a member of the ACT staff if you are NOT attending the evening activities.

Talk with your counselor and plan a meeting time at the assigned residence hall before each evening activity and walk to the activity with your group or have your ride drop you off at the activity (again, alert your counselor you have arrived). After each evening activity, you are welcome to attend counselor time with your group in the residence halls. Please let your counselor know who is picking you up each night when you leave. If you are driving your own vehicle, please text your counselor once you are in your car and ready to leave (NEVER text her/him when driving). If you forget, text your counselor as soon as you arrive at home.

If you do attend the evening activities, you must check in with your counselor once you arrive and let him/her know that you will be staying. You must also check out with your counselor at the end of the night. You will not be allowed to wait at a campus building for a ride if the activity has ended.

Failure to check out with your counselor may result in you not being allowed to participate in future evening activities or returning to camp.
